THREE RELIGIONS. ONE HOUSE.

Newsletter 01/2024

Dear friends of the House of One,

"The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good people to do nothing." So said the Russian opposition politician Alexei Navalny. In other words, each and every one of us shapes society with what we do and how we speak.

It is frightening to see how anti-Semitic violence continues to spread. It is frightening to see how Muslims are simultaneously marginalized by racism. This makes it all the more important that we do not stop reaching out to each other, listening to each other and giving space to the pain of others alongside our own.

Rabbi Nachama, Pastor Hohberg and Imam Sanci want to send a sign of peace and togetherness on the fourth anniversary of the racist murders in Hanau with a joint video message and a prayer in Jewish, Christian and Muslim tradition. This video is at the moment only available in German.

February 24 marks the anniversary of another tragic event: Russia's invasion of its neighbor Ukraine. With a multi-religious prayer for peace on this day in Berlin, we want to mourn together, remember and encourage each other (more information further down in the newsletter). It is a difficult time in which, despite everything, so much humanity is being shown. It is also a time to end enmities and revive friendships.

Peace - Shalom - Salaam
